- IT'S A -
MONEY THING™

Your credit score can affect everything from the interest rate on your loans to landing an apartment.

Your credit score is based on the information found in your credit report.

Knowing how long your activity remains on your credit report can help you better manage your credit score.

HOW LONG DOES INFORMATION STAY ON MY CREDIT REPORT?*

*Timeline is approximate and may vary depending on local legislation

FRAUD ALERTS 90 DAYS

Fraud alerts are free to set up and require businesses to verify your identity before issuing credit in your name.

Junk mail is annoying enough already—good thing it doesn't affect your credit score too!

SOFT INQUIRIES 1-2 YEARS

These are inquiries made for background check purposes, or by you. They do not affect your credit score.

PROMOTIONAL INQUIRIES 1 YEAR

Things like pre-approved credit card offers stay on file for one year but are not factored into your credit score.

CREDIT COUNSELING 2-3 YEARS

This includes records of debts paid through a debt management program or credit counselor.

HARD INQUIRIES 6 YEARS

Made by other lenders or businesses; many inquiries in a short amount of time can lower your score.

BAD CHECKS 6 YEARS

Records of non-sufficient funds are kept for 6 years.

LATE PAYMENT HISTORY 7 YEARS

ACCOUNT CLOSURES 6 YEARS

For accounts closed due to debt or fraud.

TAX LIENS 7 YEARS

This is a record of failing to pay off tax debt.

BANKRUPTCY 7-10 YEARS

Depends on location and the type of bankruptcy filed for.

COLLECTION ACCOUNTS 7 YEARS

This includes judgments (a court order that allows the creditor to use additional collection methods).

BANKRUPTCY (AGAIN) 14 YEARS

If you declare bankruptcy more than once, it stays on record for longer.

GOOD CREDIT 10+ YEARS

Accounts paid on time stick around for 10 years after their date of last activity.

Good credit behavior contributes to your credit score for a long time—something to consider before closing an account in good standing!
